

Wasatch Appoints Albert Trinkl to Lead Distribution in Europe, the Middle East and Africa (EMEA)

Salt Lake City, Utah, October 1, 2020—Wasatch Global Investors has announced the appointment of Albert Trinkl, CFA, to the firm's institutional business development team. Trinkl, former Head of Institutional Clients for the Middle East and Africa (MEA) at Deutsche Bank's asset management arm DWS, has been appointed to a newly created role to lead distribution in Europe, the Middle East and Africa (EMEA). Mr. Trinkl will be responsible for managing relationships with institutional clients and consultants.

President of Wasatch Global Investors, Eric Bergeson, commented on his appointment, "Albert brings over 30 years of industry experience in both fund management and client service and distribution roles. His time in Europe and the Middle East has included posts at Allianz, the Abu Dhabi Investment Authority, HSBC, Lingohr & Partner and Deutsche Bank's asset management arm DWS. As our global client base grows, we must continue to expand our talented business development team. Mr. Trinkl is an additional valuable resource in our pursuit to better serve institutional investors, consultants and retirement plans."

Wasatch has significantly increased its global client base and distribution footprint in recent years, including in Europe and the Middle East. The firm's roots are in U.S. small-cap investing, but its process has proven successful in identifying high-quality growth businesses of all sizes worldwide. Wasatch's research capabilities include a comprehensive suite of global, regional and emerging markets portfolios, including small-cap and concentrated all-cap strategies. Today, almost half of its U.S. $25.2 billion in assets under management are invested in dedicated global and ex-U.S. strategies.
