

Nakul Chaturvedi Rejoins Wasatch

Salt Lake City, Utah, (April 24, 2024)—Wasatch Global Investors announced today that Nakul Chaturvedi has rejoined Wasatch as an Associate Portfolio Manager on the Wasatch Global Value Fund and its related institutional strategies. Nakul will work closely with Lead Portfolio Manager David Powers and the rest of the Wasatch research team.

Before returning to Wasatch, Mr. Chaturvedi served as a senior equity research analyst at Brown Brothers Harriman. There, he focused on identifying key business drivers and valuations, leading stock selection across various sectors and industries. Earlier, he worked as a senior equity research analyst at Voya Investment Management, where he specialized in the consumer sector for U.S. and global strategies. He also worked at Constellation Energy as a manager in the markets, pricing and structuring group.

Mr. Chaturvedi earned a Master of Business Administration from the Stern School of Business at New York University. He also received a Bachelor of Science in Computer Science from North Carolina State University.

Risks

Investments in value stocks can perform differently from the market as a whole and other types of stocks and can continue to be undervalued by the market for long periods of time. Investing in foreign securities, especially in emerging and frontier markets, entails special risks, such as currency fluctuations and political uncertainties, which are described in more detail in the prospectus. Loss of principal is a risk of investing. The Wasatch Global Value Fund's investment objectives are to seek capital appreciation and income.
